2018/31

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

You will have received on Monday a letter from the Board of Trustees, advising that the school will be closed on Monday 12 November, due to industrial (strike) action by teachers. Unless you directly hear otherwise, this action is confirmed.

Industrial action is always complicated, and many things are heard and said that don't always match up. The thrust of the action by teachers is for more teachers, more resources, and increased pay for teachers to attract more people to the profession. It is hoped that at the end of this process, those goals have been achieved.

TWILIGHT FESTIVAL - The date hasn't changed!

It seems that other schools have heard about our world famous Twilight Festival, and are now using the same name. That's fine, except now there is a bit of confusion over the date. So here it is...

The original, authentic one and only amazing Everglade School Twilight Festival is on THURSDAY 29 NOVEMBER.

See you then!

Well done to our Softball team, who competed in the Zone Tournament yesterday. They played with commendable attitude, spirit and skill to finish second in their grade, a great achievement.

Congratulations to Aadil Voges, Baeley Manupenu, Bailey Tupu Tuia, Cody Ware, Hugo Lafotanoa, Isyss Schuster, Johnson Le, Joshua Godkin, Kiana Pao, Payton Gifford, Ria Goundar, Sivlarng Khun and Toby Browne. Thanks also go to Mrs Amosa and Mrs Gifford for team support and management. A great day!

Our next School Assembly is on Thursday 15 November at 1.45 pm. All are welcome.
